

Solstice Shores

Area Piam

One of the Aquifers under Piam, an underground beach for leisure.

Background

A sandy-beach aquifer filled with bright, sunlit pools created by reflected light channeled from above. It resembles a hidden seaside retreat beneath the desert.

Home to rare crystalline fish, bright corals, and relaxation retreats maintained by the Windriders. The warmth and brilliance of the waters foster solar magic and emotional healing.

Visitors often describe it as “the desert’s secret sunrise.”
